How to apply? *

To apply to the University of Windsor as an international student, the process depends on whether you are an undergraduate or graduate applicant.

- Undergraduate applicants can apply directly through the university's portal, via the Ontario Universities' Application Centre (OUAC), or with the help of an authorized educational agent.
- Graduate applicants should apply directly to their specific program via the online application system.

Key Requirements:

- Application submission: Complete the appropriate online application based on your student status.
- English proficiency: Provide proof of English language proficiency through an approved test such as IELTS, TOEFL, or Duolingo.
- Study permit: Once accepted, you must apply for a Canadian study permit through the IRCC online portal, which requires an official UWindsor acceptance letter and financial documentation. As of 2024, a Provincial Attestation Letter (PAL) is also required for your study permit application.
